FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 23, 2020

Effective March 24, the Stark County Auditor's Office will no longer accept the direct drop off of documents, except for mylar plat maps. The office continues to encourage the use of the Auditor/Recorder E-file system, with details found at www.GOePN.com or by calling the office at (330) 451-7333.

All E-files will be processed as normal; there are no expected delays in this process.

Documents brought to the County Office building for transfer/recording are required to be placed in the drop off box available in the main lobby. These documents will be retrieved on Tuesday and Thursday mornings by the Recorder's staff and routed accordingly. All delivery service documents will be handled in this same manner.

These measures are meant to be temporary and will be in place for the duration of the public health crisis. Those wishing to conduct business with the office are advised of the following means:

1. To file routine documents (homestead, CAUV, exemptions, owner occupancy, and residential rental), please use US Mail or email auditor@starkcountyohio.gov. The forms are all available at www.starkcountyohio.gov/auditor under "Forms".
2. To file documents related to maps, surveys, and conveyance of real property, please consider use of the combined Auditor/Recorder E-file system. Details may be found at www.GOePN.com or by calling the office at (330) 451-7333.
3. To apply for dog licenses, please visit www.starkcountyohio.gov.
4. To apply for a vendor's license, please visit gateway.ohio.gov.
5. The deadline for filing Complaints Against the Valuation of Real Property remains unchanged, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code. These must be in the office, emailed, or postmarked by March 31, 2020. Documents may be emailed to bor@starkcountyohio.gov.
6. To submit any documents related to County Payroll or County Finance, please email auditor@starkcountyohio.gov.
7. Please reference the Auditor's website www.starkcountyohio.gov/auditor for additional details and updates.

The office will remain open, staffed and responsive to phone calls, emails, and all filings. Please call (330) 451-7357 should you need assistance. Additional updates will be made at www.starkcountyohio.gov/auditor.
